NO ADJOURNMENT UNTIL AUGUST

Carlin Does Not Sec How Congress Can Finish Before That Time.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, May 15.—Representa-tive Carlin told The Times-Dispatch correspondent to-day that in his opin-Ion Congress would be in session until August.

"It is true that Mr. Underwood and some of the House leaders have tentatively fixed June 15 as the time for adjournment," said Mr. Carlin, "but I do not believe it will be possible to get away until late in the summer."

Mr. Carlin not only keeps up with what goes in the House, but is also in close touch with Senate proceedings. Therefore, he is in a position to judge pretty well when adjournment is likely to come.

TAFT IS CONDEMNED AND COLONEL LAUDED The Alleghany Inn;

Roosevelt Sentiment Overwhelming in North Carolina Convention and He Gets State's Delegation to Chicago.

Raleigh, N. C., May 15.-In a State llever the largest number of delegates

Raleigh, N. C., May 15.—In a State convention marked by bitter attacks upon President Taft, North Carolina's four delegates-at-large and four alternates to the Chicago Republican Convention were instructed to-day to vote for Theodore Roosevelt, "first, last and all the time," so long as his name is before the convention.

A dzclaration in favor of Roosevelt by Isaac Meekins, one of the uninstructed delegates from the First District, makes certain for Roosevelt twenty-three of the State's twenty-four votes in the Chicago convention. Wheeler Martin, the other uninstructed delegate from the First District, was not bound by the State convention's action.

The delegates-at-large are Dr. Cyrus Thompson, Jacksonville; Thomas E. Owen, Clinton: Richmond Pearson, Asheville; Zeb. V. Walser, Lexington, The alternates: Thomas S. Cheek, Camden county; H. C. Caviness, Wilkes County; S. O. McGuire, Surry county; George Pritchard, Marshall county.

A resolution presented by Richmond Pearson, former minister to Persia and a Roosevelt leader in the State, adopted amild great enthusiasm in the convention, as were all references to Colonal Roosevelt. There was no test of strength upon the subject of presidential indorsement, the Taft forces yielding to the Roosevelt leaders at the start. Zeb. V. Walser, head of the Roosevelt State committee, was made temporary and permanent chairman of the convention, as were all references to Colonal Roosevelt.
